ENGAGED STUDENTS LEARN MORE

Measuring EAST's impact through the Wellington Engagement Index

Students are the experts when it comes to their educational experience. Utilizing the Wellington Engagement Index (WEI), students provide feedback six times throughout the year indicating how much they love and are challenged by their experience. This is an autonomous alternative to testing. The student feedback provided by the WEI has given our administrators and facilitators valuable opportunities for reflection as they challenge students to solve real community problems. During the 22-23 school year, 3,450 EAST students representing 42 schools interacted with the WEI and reported their EAST experience was 22% more engaging than any core course.

SUPPORT FOR ALL EDUCATORS

116 Educators were trained in classes including LETS: 3D Print; LETS Code in the Classroom; and LETS: Write a Grant.

Education Unleashed uses EAST best practices to provide authentic and relevant professional development for any teacher. With funding provided by a grant from Arkansas National Science Foundation EPSCoR, teachers will learn how to integrate emerging technology into their classrooms and prepare tomorrow's workforce to thrive in the new economy. There is no fee to attend and each registered teacher walks away with technology for their classroom.
